

North Carolina NOW Legislative Update—25 June 2017

25 June 2017

THIS WEEK

A budget has passed and has gone to the Governor, who has ten days to sign it, veto it, or allow it to become law without his signature. Governor Cooper is expected to veto the budget since he has been strongly critical of it: <http://www.wral.com/cooper-calls-budget-deal-irresponsible-/16774013/>, 6/20/17. But if the budget is vetoed, expect an override since Republicans hold veto-proof majorities in both the House and Senate.

The budget intensifies the attack on women's reproductive rights by appropriating $2.6 million to crisis pregnancy centers over a two-year period. So-called crisis pregnancy centers are religious "ministries" that attempt to persuade women wanting abortions not to have them, often using scare tactics and false information such as claiming that having an abortion will leave a woman sterile or put her at risk for cancer. This appropriation represents an increase of one million dollars per year. See: <https://www.indyweek.com/news/archives/2017/06/20/ncga-budget-gives-26-million-to-crisis-pregnancy-centers>, 6/20/17.

This budget continues the disturbing practice of including policy that has never voted on in the budget. For example, a bill to discontinue health care benefits for retired state workers and teachers was heard in committee, but never voted on. After seeming to die in committee, the provision to discontinue health care benefits for retired state workers in the future resurfaced in the budget: <http://www.newsobserver.com/news/politics-government/politics-columns-blogs/under-the-dome/article157928844.html>, 6/23/17. Under this budget provision, state employees hired after January 2021 will no longer receive health insurance benefits when they retire.

This article in the Raleigh News and Observer gives a good overview of the budget: <http://www.newsobserver.com/news/politics-government/state-politics/article157032254.html>, 6/19/17. The Republican policy of tax cuts for corporations and the wealthy along with cuts to programs that benefit low income citizens continues in this budget. In a scathing editorial, WRAL sets forth how this budget is very short-sighted and lacks leadership on many fronts: <http://www.wral.com/editorial-new-n-c-budget-poor-management-failed-responsibilities-missed-opportunities/16779660/>, 6/23/17.

ERA UPDATE

Both ERA bills S85 and H102 remain unheard in their respective Rules Committees. However, significant progress was made in lobbying efforts by organizations with an interest in the passage of the ERA. AAUW leadership reports that to date, 275 individuals have sent emails to the Rules Committee members of both chambers, resulting in 13,728 total emails sent. Anecdotal reports indicate that numerous contacts have been made to the offices of Sen. Bill Rabon, Rules Chair and Tim Moore, Speaker of the House. Advocates are calling for the ERA bills to be reassigned to appropriate committees to be heard.

The ERA-NC Alliance is excited to welcome Kennedy Bridges and Marge Wright as summer interns with the Alliance. They began working with the Alliance on May 22nd and will serve as Action Team Facilitators through July 14, 2017. The internship program is sponsored by the Moxie Project affiliated with The Carolina Women's Center at UNC-Chapel Hill.

Lawsuit Updates

Since our Republican-dominated General Assembly has been passing law after law that is being or has been challenged in court, in addition to keeping up with new legislation introduced this session, I believe it is equally important to track the status of the various challenges to laws that have already been passed.

Vote ID/Voter Suppression Law

After a Fourth Circuit Court of Appeals panel ruled key provisions of a 2013 elections law unconstitutional (noting that it targeted African American voters "with almost surgical precision"), Governor McCrory hired private attorneys to appeal the ruling to the U. S. Supreme Court on behalf of the state because then-Attorney General Roy Cooper refused to do so. Governor Cooper and Attorney General Josh Stein have dismissed these private attorneys and removed the state from the appeal of the law. This action will not end the suit because the State Board of Elections is also a party.

Republican legislative leaders are crying “foul,” claiming that both the Governor and Attorney General have exceeded their authority in the matter. For more information, see: <http://www.newsobserver.com/news/politics-government/state-politics/article134017644.html>, 2/21/17.

In May the U. S. Supreme Court upheld a lower court ruling overturning the law by declining to hear the case. Republican leaders in the legislature have vowed to pass another voter ID law.

Expanding Medicaid under the Affordable Care Act

Governor Cooper has emphasized that expanding Medicaid under the Affordable Care Act, which would provide medical insurance coverage for up to 500,000 North Carolinians, is one of his highest legislative priorities. He has already begun the process of expanding Medicaid even though the General Assembly passed a law in 2013 prohibiting a governor from doing so without approval from the legislature. The Governor maintains that this law is unconstitutional because it violates the separation of powers and unlawfully restricts the powers of the governor. Medicaid expansion is still before the courts as Governor Cooper and the Republicans in the General Assembly continue their fight. This article gives a good summary of the history of the issue and where it stands today: <https://nondoc.com/2017/01/24/medicaid-expansion-north-carolina/>

HB2/HB142 Lawsuits

The ACLU and other parties that have filed lawsuits challenging the constitutionality of HB2 are seeking to amend their suits in light of the new law based on HB142 on the grounds that the new legislation retains some of the discriminatory aspects of HB2. The Justice Department has withdrawn its suit after the partial repeal of HB2, but the ACLU and Lambda Legal suits are continuing.

2017 Legislative Election on Hold

A Federal Appeals Court ordered new legislative districts be drawn by March 15 because 28 of our legislative districts are racially gerrymandered. New elections were ordered to be held for the redrawn districts in November, but the U. S. Supreme Court has now put the lower court order to redraw NC legislative districts and hold new elections in 2017 on hold. See: <http://nccapitolconnection.com/2017/01/11/scotus-issues-stay-on-2017-legislative-elections/>, 1/11/17.

The U. S. Supreme Court has upheld the lower court ruling that 28 legislative districts were illegally racially gerrymandered, but did not uphold its order for special elections in 2017, ordering the lower court to reconsider this point.

Lawsuits filed as a result of the special session legislative power grab A three-judge panel of the Superior Court has found the law that gave Republicans majorities on both the local and state elections boards unconstitutional. See: <http://electionlawblog.org/?p=91663>, 3/17/17.

Jack Nichols has written an excellent article summarizing and explaining the various lawsuits that have been filed in response to the legislative efforts to strip the governor of his traditional (some would argue constitutional) powers. Here is the link: <http://www.newsobserver.com/opinion/op-ed/article129015444.html>, 1/26/17. He cautions that this list is probably not complete because there likely will be more suits to come.

BILL TRACKER

House Bills

HB62, Woman's Right to Know Addition/Ashley's Law: Would require doctors to give women false and misleading information about non-surgical abortions (the abortion pill); namely, that the procedure can be reversed halfway through. Did not survive crossover

Did not survive crossover

HB163, Enact Right to Life at Conception Act: Would have the effect of outlawing abortion because although it would not "require" a woman to be prosecuted for terminating her pregnancy, doctors are not protected from prosecution at all. The bill does not specify the penalties for terminating a pregnancy nor does it explain how to determine the moment of conception.

Referred to Health; if favorable, Judiciary I 02/23/2017
Did not survive crossover

HB238, Economic Security Act of 2017: An omnibus bill that is a progressive economic wish list. Would raise the state minimum wage to $15/hr in phases over five years; mandate equal pay for equal work; require paid sick leave and family medical leave; increase the tipped minimum age; "ban the box" requiring people to disclose criminal histories on job applications; repeal public employee collective bargaining restrictions; and restore the earned income tax credit and tax credits for child care and certain employment related expenses.

the Department of Health and Human Services concerning the possibility of “reversing” the procedure by not administering the second drug in the two-step process and giving the woman progesterone. There is no medical evidence that a non-surgical abortion can be “reversed” by administering progesterone. The “reversals” are actually normal failure rates of the procedure if the second medication is not administered. There is no evidence that there is much demand for “reversing” these abortions.

Referred to Health; if favorable, Judiciary I 04/06/2017
Did not survive crossover

HB594 (SB639), Healthy Mother/Healthy Child: Would prohibit use of restraints on pregnant prisoners during labor or delivery except under extraordinary circumstances that must be reported.

Referred to Health; if favorable, Appropriations 04/06/2017

HB662, Carolina Cares: Would extend Medicaid coverage to low-income adults but would charge premiums and carries a work requirement. Modeled on Indiana’s Medicaid expansion passed under Pence. A new tax on hospitals would cover the cost. A federal waiver would be required to implement the program since Medicare expansion under the Affordable Care Act does not include premiums or a work requirement.
